Counterfeit Busters. The use of any and/or all products or services provided by Watch Certification Services of America, including Counterfeit Busters, is meant to provide the authorized user the most informative product information in the market place. No assumptions should be made that because the model you have entered in our database has not appeared as a known counterfeit, is deemed original. Use of our service does not constitute authenticity and/or that the product does not contain non-genuine or altered parts.
